

SHAMROCK III. NOW A WRECK

The High Winds Carried Everything Above Deck Away, Leaving the Hull Alone Intact.

SIR THOMAS HURT

Owner Was on Board at the Time of the Accident, and Was Slightly Injured.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Weymouth, April 17.—While preparing for a trial spin this morning the new cup challenger, Shamrock Third, had everything carried away by the wind and is practically a hulk. She was towed into port by the Erin.

Sir Thomas Hurt was on board when the accident occurred and sustained several bruises, but his injuries are not serious. The Shamrock First and Third were scudding along at a rapid pace with the new boat a half mile in the lead.

A sudden gust of wind withthrew the boat on her port side below the water level and it looked as if she would capsize. A second gust swept the mast and rigging away.

Erin to Rescue The steam yacht Erin went to her aid and helped clear the wreckage and divers went below to see if she was strained in any part.

Send for Life Designer Flit was summoned at once to Weymouth and all haste will be made to get the boat into racing shape again. Later it was learned that there were no extra spars and that in all probability the date for the races would have to be postponed.

Assembly Bill By a vote of 45 to 25 the assembly killed a bill to reimburse counties, cities and villages for money expended in caring for smallpox patients during epidemic of 1901-02.

IN JUSTICE COURT

Many Cases Come Up for Settlement Before the Janesville Justices. Much work was done in Justice Reeder's court this morning.

J. B. Searles against Harry Bishop and Joseph Bishop, judgment for plaintiff in sum of $109.30.

J. B. Searles against Daniel Peabody and Joseph Bishop, judgment rendered plaintiff in sum of $89.15. There was nothing doing in Justice Earle's domain, a card on the door announcing that the justice was out of town.

The incorporators are Abraham Hagler, John Lipe, Isom Hagler, S. H. Wiseman, Willis A. Hagler, Harlan J. Hagler and Solomon Crawshaw. For weeks efforts have been made not only in this but several other counties to combine the farmers in order to protect them from increased prices for thrashing. The new company is one result of the agitation.

RAILROAD TAX BILL PRESENTED

The Measure is Substantially the Same as the One First Framed by the Commission.

(Special to The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., April 17.—The senate committee on assessment and collection of taxes reported for passage the ad valorem tax bill just as it came from the tax commission with a few minor amendments. The proposition to increase the license fees of the railroads to 5 1/2 per cent. of their gross earnings and the one to postpone the operation of the ad valorem system until 1906 will not be reported out of the committee. The report, it is said, was unanimous. "The bill was reported substantially as it came from the tax commission," said Senator Whitehead. "There are a few minor amendments which were prepared by the tax commission, but which do not materially affect the passage of the bill. There was no division whatever in the committee and the amendments were all made as proposed by the commission and a unanimous committee."

Asked as to amendments as to increase of percentage and the extending of the time when the law will go into effect, he said they were not before the committee.

The senate committee on state affairs reported the bill to establish state grain inspection this morning and it will be made a special order for next Wednesday.

RAILWAY DOINGS OF INTEREST TO READERS

Changes and Other Features About the Railway Yards.

Much work is being done these days in the railway yards, both in the way of repairs and improvements. At the Northwestern roundhouse, a section of the east wall is being rebuilt, there having been a weak place that needed attention.

The work of rearranging and straightening the tracks is occupying the attention of a large force of men who were working today at the Madison and Pleasant street crossing. This work necessitates the changing of a number of tracks from their present location and an entire readjustment of switches and frogs in certain sections.

The foundation walls and piers on the new site, are ready for the moving of the old St. Paul passenger station and when this is done, the track work now under way can be carried on to completion. At the new St. Paul passenger station men are at work removing the temporary planking in the platform and replacing it with brick, making it uniform with the other brick already laid.

As is usual at this season of the year, large shipments of lumber are coming down from the north, almost every train having a big consignment of the output from the north woods. And the movement of coal northward is equally noticeable.

The handling of coal is now done on a large scale, the invention of the new pressed steel cars making the hauling of fifty tons to the car possible. The first type of these cars had a capacity of 30,000 pounds but now this is increased to 100,000 pounds.

The Chicago & Northwestern railway is adding new box cars to its equipment, the carrying capacity of which is forty tons. These cars are known as class B-4 and are 36 feet in length.

No Violence While there is no violence to the person, the commission is at present surrounded by several hundred irregular soldiery and they cannot leave the country unless the escape secretly. More Albanians are gathering fast.

Demand Home Rule The Albanians categorically refuse to accept the reforms offered and demand an Albanian government or their country. It is thought probable that the sultan will send several regiments to cow the natives into submission.

WOODMEN WILL PLAN FOR PICNIC

The Executive Committee To Meet Tonight, and Perfect Plans for Picnic.

Plans for the big Woodmen picnic, to be held here June 4th, will be formulated at a meeting of the executive committee of the picnic association, to be held at the city hall this evening.

The Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin Picnic association has won the distinction of holding the largest picnic gatherings of any association in the country, and it is no uncommon thing to have an attendance of 25,000 people at these annual jollifications.

The officers of the association for this year are all Janesville men, it being the rule to have men in those positions living in the city where the picnic is to be held. The present officers are F. P. Starr, president; T. L. Mason, vice president; S. M. Fisher, secretary; Orville Morse, treasurer.

Sub-committees will be appointed at tonight's meeting, there being many details to look after that will require careful attention from now on.

PRESIDENT RETURNS FROM OUTING IN PARK

Private Secretary Loeb Issues a Bulletin Giving Details of the Holiday in the National Reserve.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 17.—President Roosevelt came into Fort Yellowstone looking in splendid condition and enthusiastic over his holiday. Secretary Loeb met him at Maj. Pitcher's headquarters and transacted some routine business. After his return from his visit to the president, Secretary Loeb issued the following statement:

"Maj. Pitcher reports that the president and his party have just returned from their eight days' horseback trip in the north of the park and along the Yellowstone. The party consisted of the president, Maj. Pitcher, John Burroughs, together with an orderly, the scouts and the packers with the mule train. All the party are in excellent health and not an accident of any kind occurred. On entering the park the president informed Maj. Pitcher that he would not under any circumstances fire a shot at anything while in the park and he took neither rifle nor shotgun with him. The party had some good fishing and the president and Mr. Burroughs spent a large part of their time in following and watching at close quarters the great herds of game, chiefly elk, but also mountain sheep, deer and antelope. The party starts to-day for the interior of the park to visit the geysers and perhaps the falls of the Yellowstone. They will go in sleighs, on horseback or on skis, according to the condition of the snow."

FAIRS' SKULLS ARE EXHUMED

Bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Fair Are Decapitated, to Use in the Trial.

MR. FAIR DIED FIRST

This Is the Line of Evidence That the Attorneys Will Now Try To Prove.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) San Francisco, Cal., April 17.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair, who were killed in an automobile accident in France, have been exhumed and their heads decapitated so that the skulls may be used in the coming trial.

Fair Died Last It is expected to show by the wounds on the head of Mr. Fair that he did not die until after his wife and that hence his estate will be divided among his heirs, not Mrs. Fair's, as it would have been done had she survived him a few moments.

Expert Testimony It is thought by Fair's heirs' attorneys that it will be easy to prove that Mr. Fair survived his wife some few minutes as the wounds will show she must have died instantly.

B. Treat of Monroe, whose term expired Wednesday. Gov. La Follette also sent in the appointment of Dr. L. E. Spencer of Wausau as a member of the state board of health. He was appointed a year ago and the senate is now given an opportunity under the statute to confirm.

TO ACCEPT DECISION IN THE MERGER SUIT

Voting Trusts to Supplant Securities Companies in Future Deals in Railroad Property.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 17.—The Cleveland Leader says: "The suit of the state of Minnesota against the Northern Securities company, which went against the defendants in the United States district court, will not be appealed to the Supreme court. The stocks of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railroads which were held by the Northern Securities company will revert to the two companies and will pass into the hands of their former owners."

"These securities being held finally by the same persons who controlled them under the securities company, will then be placed in trust and sold as a unit, each organized company maintaining a separate organization. This information was received here through private financial sources from New York."

"Hill and Morgan first proposed to carry the case to the Supreme court. Then it was suggested carrying the organization to Montreal or London. Both plans were given up because it was decided that a company cannot be formed in England to do business in this country contrary to law."

"The new feud in railroads will soon be voting trusts and the various combinations of the roads which wanted to form securities companies will again follow Mr. Morgan."

WILL REGULATE TELEPHONE RATES

Assembly Committee Decide to Report Favorably on the Comp. petition Bill.

(Special to The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., April 17.—The assembly committee on state affairs last night decided by a vote of four to three to report for passage the telephone competition bill which provides that any telephone company operating in various cities of the state shall maintain similar rates in similarly sized cities. Chairman Root and Messrs. Chandler, Koch, and Williams voted in favor of the bill and Messrs. C. H. Smith, Fridl and Waterman were opposed. The bill was introduced by Assemblyman Donald, and is designed as a remedy of the independent companies of the state against the fierce, and they say, ruinous and unfair competition which the Bell or Wisconsin company employs.

A second hearing was held on the bill in the afternoon at which appeared Assemblyman Donald, Richard Valentine of Janesville, J. C. Harper of Madison and Capt. John M. Baer of Appleton for the measure and Attorney A. L. Sanborn in opposition.

The committee also agreed to recommend for passage Herman Miller's bill to authorize counties to give bounties of 10 cents for dead crows and 25 cents for dead hen-hawks.

It was also decided to concur in the senate bill to authorize the governor to make a settlement of the Wisconsin war claims against the United States.

ANNA COLLINS WINS HER SUIT

City of Janesville Loses in Decision of the Supreme Court This Morning.

LONG DRAWN OUT

Decision of the Lower Court Is Sustained, and the Plaintiff Will Secure Damages.

(Special to The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., April 17.—The supreme court today affirmed the decision of the lower court in the suit of Ann Collins against the city of Janesville. This brings to an end the famous damage suit which has been seen-sawing between circuit and supreme court since the year 1895, when Ann Collins, then thirteen years of age, injured her foot. It was alleged in a defective Cherry street sidewalk fronting property owned by Wilbur E. Carle.

Repeatedly Repeated Four times the case has been tried in circuit court, three times before Judge Slesbecker at Madison, and once before Judge Dunwiddie at Janesville. Each time a decision adverse to the city was rendered, for damages ranging from $800 to $2,500, and the case was appealed to the supreme court. In the higher court a reversal of decision resulted each time until today when the lower court's decision was affirmed.

Adverse to City The lower court's decision, which was given by Judge Dunwiddie, was for damages of eight hundred dollars. The case was near settlement at the time the judgment was rendered, but a disagreement as to the taxation of costs caused the appeal. J. J. Cunningham argued the case at Madison in behalf of the plaintiff.

MAYOR'S VETO OF FRANCHISE

THE EXACT WORDING AND REASONS FOR REFUSAL.

HE STATES HIS OPINION

Objections Were Based on Similar Grounds to a Previous Veto Given.

Following the article signed Tax Payer, which appeared in Wednesday night's Gazette, Mayor Richardson's veto to the Janesville Traction company's franchise will make most interesting reading. It follows in full:

Gentlemen of the Council: I return herewith the ordinance granting a franchise to the Janesville Traction Co., and regret to inform you that I consider it my duty to veto same for practically the same reasons that led me to veto the ordinance granting a franchise to the Beloit, Delavan Lake & Janesville Ry. Company.

In my former message to the common Council concerning the franchise granted to the Beloit, Delavan Lake & Janesville Railway Co. the criticism was made that the franchise was not so worded as to prohibit the carrying of freight. What is said of that ordinance is equally true of the one in question. It may be that it is not desired to prohibit the carrying of all classes of freight, but surely there are many people who would not care to see the streets of Janesville given up to the use of freight trains, whether propelled by electricity or other motive power. If it is desired that the company shall have the right to carry what is known as package freight which can be transported in a compartment of a passenger coach, the ordinance should so state. But as now drawn in my opinion the company has the right to carry all kinds and classes of freight.

In the same section of the proposed ordinance, the streets over which right is asked to build a road are enumerated. At the last session of the council, this section was amended by adding at the end thereof a provision granting the right to use several other streets not named in the original proposed ordinance, and materially changing the route of the proposed road. This amendment was not published as was the original application, nor was any notice given to the inhabitants of the city of Janesville in general that the proposed change was to be made.

The statutes provide that no franchise shall be granted until the application therefor stating the substance of the privileges asked for shall be filed with the city clerk and published at the expense of the applicant for not less than two weeks previous to action on the application as about all the privileges that an interurban road asks for it that of running its road through the streets. It would seem that under the provision of this statute the streets over which the right is sought should be named in the application. In case a change is made by adding other streets, whether at the instance of the applicant or the council, there is the same reason for publication that there was in regard to the original application, and perhaps more reason. There may be no objection to the granting of the right to use the streets as named in the application, but if without notice of any kind the council can, by amendment, either of its own motion or at the instance of the applicant, change the route either wholly or partially, the statute which is its purpose which is to advise the people of what is asked for in order that they may have an opportunity to be heard before the body which has the power to grant these franchises. And in my judgment, if the council by an amendment to the proposed ordinance contemplates the granting of the use of streets other than those named in the application, the amendment should be published for the same length of time as required by law for the publication of the original application.

It is true that there is in the original application a clause asking for the right to use such other streets and avenues as may from time to time be agreed upon between said company and the common council of said city. This does not help matters as there is only one way in which the common council can make such an agreement and that is by ordinance passed in the same way as the original right was conferred, and that necessitates publication; and if the use of any additional street is required the application must be made in accordance with the statute. This in my opinion raises an objection to the ordinance which makes it impossible of approval.

There are other objections, however, while not in the same nature, yet are almost as serious.

It will be observed that the amendment to the proposed ordinance confers the right on the Janesville Traction company to lay a line of track on Main street between Court street and Milwaukee street. There is already a street railway track located in the center of the street. Any other track laid must necessarily be laid to the one side or the other of the track already in the street; this will substantially destroy the use of the side of the street upon which the new track shall be laid, for horses, wagons, and other vehicles. I do not believe that the people of Janesville and particularly those having the most occasion to use South Main street would take kindly to another line of track on this street laid along the side of the one already there. It would be a great damage to property and is not necessary.

Another objection that occurs to me is that if the proposed line of road should be built from Pleasant street to Main street it will cross the river at what is known as the Court street bridge. There is no provision in the ordinance as to what part, if any, the proposed road shall bear in the expense of maintaining or rebuilding of this bridge. The cars used by interurban railways are very nearly as large as the passenger coaches used on steam railroads. They are very heavy, weighing about twenty-five tons each. They must necessarily create a great strain on the bridge, and in my opinion, any road which is granted the right to use the city's bridges should be compelled to bear at least a portion of the expense of maintaining or rebuilding the same.

Then, again, since we have had street railways, many people have used Court street bridge exclusively on account of the fact that the horses driven by them are afraid of street cars, and that being the only bridge convenient for use which is not already occupied by the street cars, it seems to me that the right to use it for such purposes should not be unnecessarily granted. It must be borne in mind that there is a large territory tributary to Janesville on which its merchants depend in part for their business. These people coming to town usually avoid the street cars as much as possible, and their efforts to do so should not be necessarily hindered.

Now if a crossing over the river is desired a place can be found at either School or Center street, and the Court street bridge may be held free at the points indicated, and the right to construct a bridge can be given to the proposed railway company. I believe that the foregoing reasons make necessary the non-approval of the ordinance.

VICTOR P. RICHARDSON, Mayor.

SNEAK THIEVES ARE IN COUNTRY

Robe Is Stolen from W. J. Miller of Afton, But Later Is Recovered.

Sneak thieves are traveling about Rock county and are picking out many articles of value from farmers in the neighborhood of adjacent villages. It does not seem to be the usual "yegmen" that swarm out of Chicago when spring comes, but rather of the petty larceny kind who steal from farmers' wagons or his barn yard during the night.

W. J. Miller of Afton was one of the victims, but fortunately his loss was recovered after a few days' delay. Mr. Miller has an excellent buffalo robe. As these robes are scarce he keeps it securely hidden away, only bringing it out on state occasions. Recently he wished to take a long drive at night and missed his robe.

Search revealed the fact that it was gone beyond any doubt and word was sent to Beloit and Janesville to watch out for it if offered for sale. Yesterday a neighbor of Mr. Miller drove into the yard with the missing robe which his son had found hidden under a bush at the road side on the river road. Evidently the thief had been afraid to keep it longer.

DEAF MUTES MAY HAVE A SCHOOL

Classes May Be Organized in This City for Instruction.

There are said to be three hundred deaf persons in the state who are not receiving school instruction, and who are entitled to such instruction from the state. H. C. Buell has received a letter in this connection from Miss Anna E. Shaffer, state inspector of schools for the deaf. She requests that he take pains to secure the names of all deaf minors, and in case there is a large number of such children in this city, a school for the deaf will be established at state expense. A dozen such pupils are sufficient to justify the state in establishing a local department for them.

Schools for the deaf have been established in many cities of the state in addition to the state school for the deaf at Delavan. Appleton, Ashland, LaCrosse, Neillsville, Sparta and many other cities have provisions for teaching those children who cannot teach themselves of the usual methods of instruction. In schools the deaf and dumb alphabet is taught and the children are made proficient in conversation in this method.

Mr. Buell says that in this city there are probably seven or eight deaf children, who are entitled to instruction at state expense. He wishes to hear from all those who are suffering from defective hearing and should be receiving suitable instruction. In case a large enough number of students are found, steps will probably be taken toward the establishment of a class under a competent instructor next year.

Many Guests From the City and Out of Town Witness Ceremony.

Brilliant and beautiful in every detail was the wedding which last evening crowned the matrimonial events of Easter week and it was amid the happiest and most auspicious surroundings that Miss Helen Copeland Fifield became the wife of Harry Ross King. The marriage of these popular young people was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edward Fifield, 201 North Jackson street, in the presence of nearly one hundred fifty relatives and friends.

The company which assembled at the Fifield residence was composed of the leading society people of the city. The wedding guests who were in handsome evening dress were cordially received by Mr. and Mrs. Fifield, the bride's mother wearing a cream colored gown. Miss Margaret Fifield and Master Eldridge Fifield, cousin and brother of the bride, waited on the guests at the door.

Bower of Greens
The decorations of the spacious parlors were unique as well as extremely effective and beautiful. No flowers were used, save on the bride table in the dining room, but the parlors were lowered in a profusion of southern smilax and other luxuriant foliage. One corner of the front parlor was banked from floor to ceiling with a pyramid of great palms, the rich green making an effective setting for the pretty picture made by the wedding party.

Bridal Party Appears
Shortly after eight o'clock, the approach of the bridal party was sweetly heralded by the familiar melody of the wedding march from Wagner's "Lohengrin," played by Mrs. James S. Fifield, aunt of the bride. The groom attended by Mark Bostwick and by the officiating clergyman, Rev. Robert C. Denison, pastor of the Congregational church, entered the parlor from the reception hall and awaited the bride and her attendants at the improvised altar.

The Fair Attendants
The bride, preceded by her ribbon bearers came through the parlors. First came Miss Winifred Fifield, sister of the bride, and Miss Edna Cannan, of Chicago, followed by Miss Emma Winans and Miss Katherine Harvey, of Madison. Instead of the customary ribbons, the four young women carried long ropes of asparagus plumosus, the hand which held each end of the dainty vines, also holding one pink rose.

Proceeding the Bride
Through the aisle thus formed came Miss Catherine Fifield, the bride's sister, as maid of honor, followed by the bride on her father's arm. Facing the clergyman and with their backs to the company, the bride and groom took their positions with the maid of honor and the best man on either side, and the four ribbon bearers grouped behind them.

A Beautiful Service
The marriage service was especially impressive and beautiful. The ring service was used and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The responses of both bride and groom were made clearly and sweetly and throughout the entire ceremony until Rev. Denison pronounced the nuptial blessing, there sounded the soft music of "Evening Star" played by Mrs. Fifield.

The Bride's Gown
The bridal party was an exceptionally handsome one. The bride was lovely in a beautiful creation of white over ivory satin, the graceful folds of the bridal veil falling over this exquisite costume. The Princess gown was cut on a train and yoke and high collar of lace and flowing sleeves of accordion plaited chiffon. Flows of shirring made the only trimming for the skirt and white slippers and long white embroidered gloves completed the costume. The bride carried a large bouquet of white roses.

Other Dresses
The maid of honor's fair beauty was enhanced by a gown of rose colored silk, simply but elegantly made with trimmings of panne velvet. The gown was cut low and was sleeveless and Miss Catherine Fifield's bouquet was also of white roses.

The ribbon bearers all wore becoming decollete gowns. Miss Winifred Fifield's gown was of white silk tissue with trimmings of heavy lace insertion. Miss Cannan wore tucked white silk crepe with a yoke and panel of Irish crochet lace. Miss Winans wore white chiffon daintily flowered in pale blue and Miss Harvey's gown was of pink mousseline de sole over pencil-striped taffeta. The groom and his best man were in full evening dress.

Refreshments Served
At the conclusion of the ceremony congratulations were extended after which delicious refreshments were served at small tables in the dining room and the billiard room. The bride's table was handsomely decorated and arranged to seat a party of twelve. The chandelier was twined with plumosus and luxuriant festoons of the delicate fern extended to the corners of the table. Great pink roses formed the centerpiece and additional decorative touches were given by four pink candles in silver candlesticks. At this table were seated the bride and groom and their attendants, with Messrs. Fred S. Sheldon, Charles Reynolds, Samuel Echlin and Ned Whitton, who served as escorts for the ribbon bearers.

The Waitresses
The refreshments were served in two courses, the guests being cared for prettily by the following daintily gowned young ladies: Misses Ethel Fifield, Ruth Fifield, Flora McLean,

Margaret Goodwin, Alice Harper, Elizabeth McKee, Isabelle Smith, Vera Wilcox, Marjorie Mount, Elizabeth Wilcox and Madeline Buckner, of Chicago.

After refreshments many of the gentlemen adjourned to the large porch, which had been transformed into a smoking room. It was enclosed with canvas, brilliantly lighted with lamps and furnished with rugs and easy chairs. It was an attractive retreat.

Bride's Bouquet Thrown
Soon after the supper, the bride retired to change her wedding dress for her going away gown of gray cloth. As she went up the stairs she threw her bouquet to her attendants and Miss Cannan was the fortunate one who secured it. Mr. and Mrs. King drove away amid a shower of rice but they eluded the merry crowd which made a stampede for the depot by remaining in the city over night and leaving on their wedding journey this morning.

Gracious Bride
The bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fifield, is richly endowed with personal beauty, charming manners and a happy disposition. She is a graduate of Janesville High school in the class of '02.

Popular Groom
The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Thomas King and is a prominent young business man, being a member of the firm of King & Cowles, shoe merchants. His genial manners, unfailing good nature and sterling business qualities have combined to make him popular both in business and social circles and he and his bride will take the best wishes of a host of friends.

Will Reside Here
After a brief visit to Chicago and other cities, Mr. and Mrs. King will return to this city and go to house-keeping in the home at 103 Locust street, the groom's mother going to live with her daughter for the present. Into their new home Mr. and Mrs. King will take many material evidences of the good wishes of their friends as they were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents. One entire room was required to display the collection of cut glass, silver, china, articles of furniture and other valuable gifts.

Out-of-Town Guests
Among the guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson and two sons, Miss Edna Cannan, and Miss Madeline Buckner, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Louise Rider, Jefferson; Mrs. Frederick Parsons, Toledo, O.; Miss Katherine Harvey, Madison and Miss Flora McLean, Chihuahua, Mexico.

Tortures of Death From Headache.

"Nearly every day I suffered from severe attacks of headache. They usually began with a heavy, dull feeling soon after dinner. During these up to my head felt as though there was a tight bandage around it, my temples throbbled, I became sick at my stomach, and suffered almost the tortures of death. For two years past I have been taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and have found sure and immediate relief always. By taking one in time the headache is prevented every time."—Mrs. M. E. NORRIS, Garfield, Wash.

"Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are all right. I can recommend them very highly to anyone who needs a remedy for headache, neuralgia, or pain of any kind. My health is not very good, and I am subject to frequent attacks of severe headache, but since I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills I do not suffer from them as I used to. They never fail to give relief in a few minutes, and if taken promptly upon the approach of a headache will prevent an attack from coming on."—Mrs. Wm. FREDRICK, Gloversville, N. Y.

"Dr. Miles' Pain Pills grow in favor with me every day; for, whereas, I used to have sick headache once a week, sure, can say that I do not have it any more at all. I never had anything cure me of sick headache before."—CLAUDE TUCKER, Wallace, N. Y.

FREELY DISCUSSED

The Daily Gazette of Wednesday, contained a communication signed, "Tax Payer" in which the city attorney was criticised for negligence in the case of the franchise granted the Southern Wisconsin Interurban Railway company.

The paper of yesterday contained a reply from Thos. S. Nolan of the same company denouncing the city attorney and criticising the action of the Mayor. In today's issue is published the Mayor's veto of the franchise and his reasons for the action taken. Also another communication from Tax Payer to which Mr. Nolan may wish to reply. The facts are now before the people, and so far as the paper is concerned this must end the discussion.

As before stated the Gazette has no interest in either company, and the paper believes that whatever action is taken by the new council, will be satisfactory to the public. The paper has attempted to be perfectly fair in dealing with this question, and it has no disposition to be otherwise. While the parties interested very naturally desire to win, it is well for them to remember that the public do not feel the same degree of interest.

In justice to the city attorney, Mr. Burpee, it should be said that he is held responsible for a good many things for which he is not accountable. While he is the legal advisor of the council, he is not the council and should be allowed to perform the functions of that body, he would soon discover that he was exceeding authority.

Mr. Burpee has filed the office of city attorney for five years, and his record is clean. He has made a reputation on damage suits, and the expense of his office compares favorably with any of his predecessors. The salary of the office should be at least $1,200.

There has been more or less excitement as the result of investigation during the last few months. Much intemperate talk has been heard, and wholesale accusation has been in the air. Suspicion has clouded reputation and the innocent have suffered with the guilty. The case has been decided in favor of the people, and it is a good time to cool off and work together for the common good.

POWER WITH THE PEOPLE

Wall Street and many other financial interests in New York and New Jersey is a good deal stirred up over the late decision of the Minnesota court in the case of the Northern Securities company. It is reported that President Roosevelt is held responsible and that an effort will be made to defeat his nomination in 1904.

It might be well for this class of financiers to remember that the country is larger than Wall street, and that the people generally are in sympathy with the president and heartily endorse his action. While he had nothing to do with the Minnesota decision, he stood behind attorney General Knox in the matter of investigation, and his attitude on combines is thoroughly understood.

Combined capital is a wonderful power in developing industries and opening up new enterprises. Railroads are built and maintained, not by single individuals, but by combinations of interests, but the number of investors is comparatively small.

While the president has shown no disposition to antagonize these interests, he is in no sense dependent upon them for either nomination or election. He is the people's representative, and he stands closer to the people today than ever before.

They recognize in him a fearless advocate, and they have confidence in his honesty and ability. He will succeed himself in spite of any opposition that combined capital may control.

The Minnesota decision in the Merger Case, has caused a heavy decline in Wall Street stocks, and fortunes have changed hands rapidly. The country at large is so prosperous, that a little thing like a merger decision has but little effect. The people generally have no interest in this class of combinations, and no sleep is lost on account of worry.

Senator Hanna, of Ohio, is sixty six years old, but he is in the prime of life so far as activity is concerned. He has large manufacturing interests, is wealthy, and very popular as an employer. Politics to him is a pastime, and he is recognized as the greatest political leader in the republican party. He will conduct the president's campaign next year.

A circular recently issued by the coal trust is said to fix the retail price of anthracite coal in Milwaukee, at $7 a ton for the month of April with an advance of ten cents for each month until it reaches $7.50 which will be the price for next winter. Janesville quotations are not mentioned.

The Assembly can hardly afford to be influenced by the oratory of T. C. Richmond, or the logic of Mr. Bacon. Richmond is a spell binder of prohibition and free silver proclivities, while Bacon is a Milwaukee grain dealer, with interests largely centered in Bacon. Frear and Gilman are administration shouters.

London calls the late Vanderbilt wedding vulgar, on account of the extravagant use of money. So long as America pays the freight, London should not complain.

Deer are so plenty in Michigan that they are slaughtered for their hides. Wisconsin should send over a few game wardens between campaigns.

St. Louis is still prosecuting hoodlums, and electing more men of the same sort to office. Janesville could give the city a few points on reform.

Milwaukee has a sensation in a default to the tune of $500,000. The Cream City may be slow but she sometimes does things up brown.

TAX PAYER HAS FEW MORE FACTS

States His Opinion in Answer to the Arguments Made by Mr. Nolan.

To the editor: Referring to my communication in the Gazette of Wednesday afternoon and to Mr. Nolan's of last evening permit me to say I have no intention to and I think I did not in any way reflect on Mr. Nolan or on his effort or on the effort of the Janesville Traction company to secure a valuable franchise in its terms favorable to him or it; nor did I intend unduly to criticize any public officers. I said nothing in my article that I had not previously said in substance more than once to the city attorney.

Mr. Nolan represents a special interest and it was his privilege and his right to secure every advantage for that interest that he could by the exercise of his best faculties.

If what I said in my article was not the fact Mr. Nolan does Mr. Burpee equally great injustice in representing him as favorable to the interests of either company seeking a franchise as against the other. In my article I simply desired to call public attention to the fact that public interests were lost sight of by a public officer in the heat of partisan contention so that public pressure might redress the public neglect if any existed.

That fact as I say had more than once represented directly to the city attorney.

Mr. Nolan says that Mr. Burpee prepared an amended ordinance relative to the bridge to be introduced at the last meeting of the council and says the amendment was placed in the hands of Mr. Rice. Was the amendment introduced? Has any one seen it? What were its terms? Mr. Rice moved that the mayor's veto be overridden. The motion failed. Had it passed the franchise would be granted. It was then too late to amend and surely Mr. Nolan would not urge an amendment limiting his grant after his rights had been secured.

The amendment was an after thought as it seems to gain support for one of the contending interests. Tax payers are interested to know that the city's legal adviser has an eye single to the public interest without regard to the success of private interests. The protection of the public in the matter of franchise extending over a period of years is of as much importance to the city as the success of litigated matters and in those matters another lawyer has been pretty generally employed and paid by the city.

We gladly concede for the purpose of agreeing the high character and ability of our officer, but doing so we cannot convince ourselves that one is another man of those with whom he "hooks." However perhaps the embarrassment arises from the "confidential relation." That is the rub. That relation is destroying our confidence and we fear has increased our taxes, therefore we urge the strengthening of our city's legal department.

PRESS CLIPPINGS

Weyauwega Chronicle: A reckless Missouri minister threatens to tell the truth in his future funeral orations. If he carries out his rash threat he will soon attend to his own funeral.

Two Rivers Chronicle: Senator Whitehead should be canonized by the Greshams. They will never have another chance to get a patron saint so cheaply. He is really a rare specimen of a sexless saint and is, no doubt, "too good to be true."

Racine Journal: Congressman Babcock denies that he has undertaken to throw out the governor into the outer darkness. He admits, if reports are not distorted, that it is the principle that he is after, and not the governor in person. He also asserts that he will be in political swim for some time, which testifies, according to Mr. Babcock himself that he has a clench.

Minneapolis Times: The time of his life was what the people of Bismarck gave President Roosevelt. Besides the conventional formalities speeches, handshaking and so on, there was a monster barbecue. Let us sincerely hope that the president got a good "helping" of the savory meat, for if there is anything that makes a mortal hungry it is North Dakota ozone scented with the aroma of barbecued beef, and presidents got just as hungry as the rest of us.

Going to Evansville: About sixteen Whitewater people spent the day in the city and will take the special train which leaves here at seven o'clock this evening for Evansville where the league declamatory contest will be held tonight. Miss Harriet Decker and Miss Ada Longley will represent the local high school and a large delegation of students will accompany them.

In connection with the degree work to be given the class from Oxfordville this evening at Rock River Encampment, No. 3 I. O. O. F., a tempting banquet will be served.

MANY POSTS IN THE STORE-ROOM

FACTORY HAS CLOSED DOWN FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

TALK OF BUILDING ADDITION

New Machinery Will Be Installed Later on in the Season.

Twenty-five thousand posts are a good many, but those figures represent the number now on hand at the Cement Post factory.

The big plant has shut down temporarily, there being a scarcity of the wire used in the construction of the posts. The company have been using a wire that was already twisted when received, but during the shutdown they will install a machine at the factory for twisting the wire as needed.

Other changes will be made during the few days' respite from work, one of them in progress today being the remodeling of the molds in which the posts are formed. These have been a trifle large and more cement was used than necessary, consequently they are being slightly reduced in size.

Need More Men. It is expected when work is resumed that an increase of the force will be necessary, as the present help will not be sufficient to handle the product turned out.

One of the plans of the company for future consumption is the erection of a 400-foot extension on the west end of the main structure. Two other machines for the factory are being erected at the machine shop of the Blacknell Hardware company, one of them being a crimping machine, while the other is an eight-spindle gang-drill.

Janesville products are sent to all corners of the country, the Wisconsin Carriage company having just filled an order from Buffalo for a wire wheel, pneumatic tired Stanhope. This factory is rushed with orders and is doing night work in some departments.

Clark, G. C. T.

Y. M. C. A. TO HAVE GOOD GYMNASTICS

This Evening's Program Will Be Very Good and Worth Seeing.

Gymnastics will be a thing of especial interest this evening at the Y. M. C. A. building this evening. Physical Director Mack has arranged a program of interest and has divided the events into three classes.

There are respectively the B. Juniors, A. Juniors and seniors and they will come in that order on the program. The series of events will consist of callisthenics, apparatus work and tumbling. In work on the apparatus, the German horse, parallel and horizontal bars will be used and music will be used for these features and also for the drill work put on.

About fifty athletes will take part in the various events, which will begin at 8 o'clock.

HIS WORK APPRECIATED

Hildebrand, the Artist, Will Remain Here Another Week. H. Hildebrand, the artist who has been making portraits at the Frank D. Kimball furniture store, has received no end of praise for his excellent work. At 75 cents each these portraits are the equal of $5 values. Mr. Hildebrand will remain here another week and all persons who wish his services are requested to leave their orders as soon as possible.

Mrs. James Starr. Mrs. James Starr, an old resident of Newark, died last evening at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Starr was born at Oxbridge, England. In company with her husband she crossed the ocean in 1850 and for four years lived in Beloit. Thence they moved to Newark, where she has lived since. Her husband, James Starr, died in 1889.

Mrs. Starr had a kind and loving disposition and a good word for every one, and was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, E. J. Starr of Newark and County Clerk F. P. Starr, of this city.

Dr. J. R. Whiffen, accompanied by several friends bearing huge pincushions, "We are just married; look us up," arrived in the city yesterday. The trunks were the property of Dr. W. H. Merritt, who was married at Waterloo, Ia. Wednesday evening, and went to Chicago with his bride for a short visit. Mr. Whiffen acted as his best man.

INVITE GUARD TO COMPETITION

STATE TO BE REPRESENTED AT FORT RILEY.

WILL BE WELL EQUIPPED

The Officers and Men Are Now in Most Excellent Shape for Any Event.

An invitation has been sent out by the various department commanders throughout the United States for the purpose of finding out how many troops in the state militia can be secured to co-operate with the regulars in the contemplated maneuvers at Fort Riley. Wisconsin has been included in this invitation, but as yet the officers of the national guard here are undecided as to what reply they will make.

Total Force. The infantry forces in Wisconsin comprise three regiments, the First, Second, Third and Tenth separate battalions, each with its full number of men, in all 2,312 members, each equipped and armed with the Springfield rifle.

The Cavalry. Besides the infantry there is the battery and troop, the latter two located in Milwaukee. On the roll call of the troop there are seventy men and on that of the battery seventy-five. The members of the troop are armed with carbine, saber and pistol, and if the drills they have been putting up in the past are taken as a criterion, they are competent to compete, especially in horsemanship, with regulars.

Artillerymen. The artillerymen with the exception of the non-commissioned officers carry no salaried positions, but it is expected they will shortly be equipped with pistols. The cannon which they use is the three and three tenths inch guns and fire fifteen-pound shells. The gunners have become more familiar with the new telescopic sights than they were at the time of their last competition with the Minnesota battery in 1902, and should be able to duplicate their excellent shooting of 1901.

Well Drilled. The members of the entire three branches of the service are well drilled in every way, and should they compete with the regulars would no doubt make a creditable showing.

Change Camp. If the plans to turn Camp Douglas into a permanent post for the regular troops materializes, the citizen soldiers will then be compelled to drill against regulars every year, and no better departure than this could happen for the guardsmen, as the discipline which is so rigid in the regular army would serve to show them what is necessary in order to make good soldiers.

Many Veterans. Many of the veterans of the Spanish-American war are still members of the guards and have been associated with regulars in the past; but the rivalry which existed between these two organizations is not likely to crop out between the guards and the regulars.

ENDED HIS LIFE, IN DESPONDENCY

HENRY E. VOGEL, OF MONROE, HANGS HIMSELF.

FOUND DEAD THIS MORNING

He Had a Son and Daughter Living in This City—Latter's Illness Caused Depression.

Despondent. It is believed, over the sickness of a daughter who resides in this city, Henry E. Vogel last night ended his life at Monroe by hanging. He was found this morning in his barn, and suspended from the rafters, and his appearance indicated that he had been dead for five or six hours. He was seventy-six years of age and resided most of his life in Monroe. A son and daughter live in this city.

Was Despondent. Mr. Vogel is one of the prominent and respected citizens of Monroe. Recently he came to this city to visit his daughter who was ill, and her condition had an extremely depressing effect upon him. He began to threaten that he would commit suicide, and was constantly brooding over his sorrow. It is not known at just what hour he carried out his threat. When he was discovered this morning, dead from strangling, it was the first indication that he had actually intended to put an end to his troubles, real or imaginary by self destruction.

Two Children Here. Besides his daughter, Mr. Vogel also has a son in this city, Emil Vogel, who is a machinist at the Janesville Machine works. The deceased had a large acquaintance in this city among some of the older people, and among the farmers in this section of the state.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday April 17, 1863.—Col. W. V. Britton, of the 8th, W. V. reports from headquarters near Vicksburg, Miss., a note of the soldiers of that regiment saying that the total vote cast was 387, Dixon 367 and Cothren 7, no votes for the copperheads, (hurrah for the 17th.) The regiment was paid yesterday for four months. We are engaged in a work that is little known yet in your part of the country, and I think that Vicksburg will soon be flanked and captured. The regiment was never in a healthier condition than at present and also the army generally. The river is alive with steamboats and iron-clads. Shots are frequently exchanged between our fleet and the batteries of Vicksburg. I have just learned by a flag of truce and from deserters that the rebel troops at Vicksburg have mutinied and several regiments have gone home.

The 13th is still holding forth at Fort Donnellson. It has been there for two or three times, to having been gobbled up, or rather that Fort Donnellson was in the hands of the rebels, or about to be, but we are more fortunate than the 13th who have met with their misfortunes through the mismanagement on the part of some one. There is little apprehension of this place being attacked by Van Dorn or any other Dorn of the rebel army. It is too strong a place to be taken by any small force, and one large enough would be in danger of being cut off by troops above here from Nashville or Murphreesboro, before they could accomplish their object and get back.

The singers from Janesville assisted by others abroad under the direction of N. H. Burness, will give an Old Folks Concert Wednesday evening at Lappin's hall, the singers will appear in the costumes of olden times.

Report from the 12th Wisconsin Battery saying: "We have just accomplished one of the greatest undertakings of the age; that of travelling across the country from the Mississippi river to the Yazoo by water. If you could see the Tecumseh, our boat, you would conclude that the way was narrow and crooked. She is torn from bow to stern, in fact everything but the hull is a complete wreck. We expect that we will have plenty of excitement for a time as we are to engage the enemy. Gen. Quimby is in command here."

Probably the most important offering of the season will occur at the Myers Grand Opera house, Wednesday April 22 when Frank L. Perley's company of singers and comedians will present the operatic comedy hit, "The Chaperons" for the second time

New R. R. Watertank

The Union Pacific is working toward an era of good water for its locomotive boilers, and to this end has installed one water-purifying plant and has five in course of construction and a like number contracted for. These plants will be installed between Council Bluffs and Cheyenne. Ultimately, and within a few years, says the Omaha Bee, twenty-five more plants will be added to the system, giving the road a complete system of purifying plants at all of the points where the water is not satisfactory for boiler use.

There are not over thirty-five water-purifying plants in the country and one-half of these are not for the use of railways. France, Germany and England have all taken up the work and practically all of the water used by locomotives in these countries is purified.

Life of Flues and Boilers

In the eastern state, where water is uniformly purer than in the west, the flues in a boiler have the life of 200,000 miles and a like distance with a little calking and tightening. Compared with the flue mileage west of the Mississippi this is a comparatively long life, as the life of flues in the west does not average much over 40,000 miles. This difference is due solely to the difference in the water. The life of the flues with pure water is from four to ten times greater than those where the water contains mineral salts common to well water in the west.

The water used by the Union Pacific is drawn almost entirely from wells and contains a quantity of carbonates and sulphates of lime, magnesium and iron, which all cause hard or soft scale, and are dangerous to the life of the boiler. There is also a large quantity of alkali present, but this it is impossible to remove except by distilling, and the cost of distillation is too great for it to be practicable. The presence of the alkali in the water does not affect the boiler to any great extent beyond causing it to foam, and with care the water does not foam sufficiently to cause any inconvenience.

Deleterious Salts in Water
For years the presence of the deleterious salts in the water used in the boilers has caused the use of tons of boiler compounds, which were of little real benefit. The danger of foaming was increased with their use of the boilers still scaled.

Railroads everywhere have made it a point to use city water where it is obtained from streams and creeks or from lakes, as this is purer than well water. The Chicago & Alton railway, at a great expense, built a series of reservoirs which secured for its motive power surface water, but this contains a trace of organic matter that corrodes the boiler and is a continued expense almost as great as that of operating purifying plants.

The Northwestern is the only western road that has yet taken steps in this matter and it has built a series of plants along its line between Omaha and Chicago that is practically complete. The results obtained are very satisfactory. All of the water purifying plants in this country depend upon the chemical principles and differ only in their matter of operation. Carbonates of lime, magnesium and iron are commonly held in solution by water. Their presence in the water causes soft scale to form in the boilers. Slaked lime will precipitate them, as it will also precipitate chloride of magnesium, which corrodes the boiler tubes. Sulphates of lime and magnesium are also found in considerable quantities in well water and through them a hard scale is precipitated on the sides and tubes of the boiler. The sulphates can be precipitated out with soda ash.

Cause of Precipitate
Both soda ash and slaked lime are cheap commodities and the principal salts found in well water which cause corrosion and scaling are separated from the water by their addition. The addition of these chemicals causes a precipitate and this must be removed from the water before it is introduced in the boiler, so it is either necessary to either allow the precipitate to settle or to remove it by filtration.

The Union Pacific, in its system, will combine the two methods of separation. The water is pumped to the top of the water tank and allowed to run over and through a prepared solution of slaked lime and soda ash, and then is partly filtered and drawn off from the top of the tank after having settled. The system is continuous and requires from four to four and a half hours to perform its functions. It requires no more labor to run a water tank containing the purifying apparatus than one not so arranged, and the only cost sustained in the process is that of the chemicals and averages from 1 to 3 cents for 1,000 gallons.

The plants arranged for have capacities ranging from 300,000 to 500,000 gallons daily and are large enough for from sixty to 100 of the largest of the company's locomotives to replenish their tanks in passing. When the entire system is completed it will be able to purify about 5,000,000 gallons daily and will serve the company for all time.

From time to time it will be necessary for the company to analyze the water, as its chemical composition is likely to change, and care has to be taken that the chemicals be added in their proper quantity as too little would not purify the water and too great a quantity of soda ash would increase the danger from the foaming which is ever present.

While the Union Pacific is the pioneer in the matter of water purification west of the Missouri, other roads are appreciating the situation and making extensive tests and a careful study of the subject. It is certain that within a few years the start that the Union Pacific has made will be followed by a majority of the western roads and water purifying plants will exist everywhere the locomotives replenish their tanks, as the cost of installing the plants is insignificant and the cost of purification more than saves itself in the decreased deterioration of the flues and the saving made in coal consumption because of the lack of scale on the boiler plates and flues.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY MEET

Delightful Evening Is Spent by the Young People of the Norwegian Lutheran Church.

Last evening the Young People's society of the Norwegian Lutheran church met at the home of Mr. Anton Birkness on Terrace street and enjoyed one of their usual literary and social evenings. About fifty persons were present and the pastor, Rev. Kvale, gave a most interesting talk on the famous Italian, Savonarola. Music was also part of the evening's entertainment and Mr. Kvale rendered two solos in a most pleasing manner. The entire evening was one of uninterrupted enjoyment.

CALUMET Baking Powder

Food prepared with Calumet Baking Powder is pure and healthful, and is free from Rochelle salts, alum, lime and ammonia. A wonderful powder of unequalled strength.

Trust Baking Powders sell for 45 or 50 cents per pound and may be identified by this exorbitant price. They are a menace to public health, as food prepared from them contains large quantities of Rochelle salts, a dangerous cathartic drug.

The Quality of Gund's Peerless Bottled Beer

is always the highest and never varies. It is always pure and is the favorite brand among good judges. Sold in best places.

BACKING UP STATEMENTS

If this store puts a statement in print concerning its methods or its merchandise you can depend upon that statement being in every way backed up. We are careful here never to make statements which cannot be backed up. Public confidence came to us by a strict adherence to our printed promises. We make some forceful statements in this "ad" concerning certain lines of fresh seasonable goods. Suppose you visit the shop and see for yourself how carefully they are backed up.

IMPORTANT OUTER GARMENT SALE.

We've made careful preparation for a big selling event in our garment rooms. When you see style and quality linked to such low prices it will certainly pay you to carefully investigate.

Suits & Jackets. Women's Dress Skirts.

Recent large shipments have put our stock of Suits, Jackets, Blouses, Coats so far ahead of what might ordinarily be called a complete stock that all hopes of any house hereabouts reaching us must be blasted. We cannot picture in cold type the loveliness of the suits and spring garments. They come from New York's leading manufacturers and are very late. Suits in Etamine, Pongee, and fancy materials beautifully trimmed and only one of a style. Values in suits at $10, $15 to $25 in pretty mixtures that cannot be matched.

Spring garments in black taffeta and Peau de Sole silks, changeable cloth, taffeta, black velour, cream broadcloth, colored etamines, natural pongee, etc., for ladies and misses. Swell styles that will not be common.

Ladies looking for exclusive novelties can surely get suited here.

Hundreds of them—styles to suit every one.

Some elaborately trimmed, others finished with stitching, strapped seams, etc. Plain and fancy wool materials, Etamines. Toffeta and Peau de Sole silks, lace net covered, cream and Marine blue Etamines with handsome silk drop-skirts, etc. We call particular attention to the reasonable prices at which we are able to offer our ready made garments. No complaints on that score.

This is novelty season in more ways than one, but we are talking ready to wear garments, and we have laid ourselves out to gather together a collection that cannot be out-bested by any line outside of the very largest. Read over again, what we said about backing up statements.

They are cold facts.
